

ACADIA UNIVERSITY

Located in Wolfville, Nova Scotia, Acadia University is recognized as an outstanding academic institution. Founded in 1838, it is one of Canada's oldest and most respected universities and offers a liberal arts education unique among post-secondary institutions. Acadia offers a stimulating, vibrant environment, on and off campus, where dedicated faculty inspire and challenge students to be their best through supportive personalized learning environments, holistic education and nurturing community engagement.

Faculty of Professional Studies Department of Community Development Per Course Faculty Teaching Opportunity

Under the terms of the 16th Collective Agreement, and in accordance with Article 58.10(a)(ii), the University invites applications from all qualified individuals. First consideration will be given to internal candidates as defined in Article 58.11(b)(i) of the Collective Agreement (Internal applicants are all individuals on the Precedence List as defined in Articles 11.12(a), 11.12 (b) and 11.12(m) and all Full-Time Employees.).

Competition: #CODE 05-302-23

Course Title: CODE 2613 WI01 – Facilitation and the Art of Gathering

Contract Term: December 15, 2023 – April 30, 2024 (Winter Term)

Course Schedule: Winter 2024 – Tuesdays and Thursdays 9:30 – 10:50 am

Employee Group: Acadia University Faculty Association

Course Description: This course explores theories and practices of group development and facilitation in community and interpersonal group contexts. It introduces a range of facilitation concepts and strategies to develop cohesiveness and trust, maximize equitable and participatory processes, welcome and listen to diverse viewpoints, and transform conflict into creative cooperation. Concepts will be applied, with an emphasis on experiential learning.

Qualifications: A PhD or Master's in Community Development or related field experience is preferred, however, a Bachelor's degree with extensive professional and community experience will be considered. Candidates with Community Development/Recreation Management or related field experience are encouraged to apply. Direct experience teaching this course or closely related course is required.

Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

To apply for this opportunity, click on the "Apply Now" button and upload a letter of application and curriculum vitae.

If further information is required, please contact Kelli Mahoney, Human Resources Department at 902-585-1633 or kelli.mahoney@acadiau.ca.

Competition closes November 21, 2023 (at midnight).

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals; however, Canadians and permanent residents shall be given priority. The University encourages applications from Indigenous people; African Canadians; African Nova Scotians; persons with disabilities; visible minorities; women; persons of any minority sexuality, gender identity or gender expression; and all intersections of these identities. Acadia embraces the principles of equity, diversity, and inclusion as fundamental in creating an expansive academic environment and champions diverse knowledge systems as pillars of academic excellence.

All applicants shall be required to submit an online self-identification form (Employment Equity Voluntary Self-Identification Form) as part of their application package.