Course Schedule: Monday to Friday – 8:30 am – 12 noon – Class Dates: July 8 – 19.

Employee Group: Acadia University Faculty Association

Course Description: This course explores the application of assessment techniques and tools in a modern classroom that focus on student growth – from establishing learning expectations to the decisions we make to move individual students towards these goals. Topics will include establishing clear learning goals in a competency-based education system; eliciting a balance of achievement evidence; effective communication and feedback; peer assessment; self-reflection; and summative reporting. Prerequisite EDUC 4433.

Qualifications:

The successful applicant should have an M.Ed. or higher qualification in a relevant area. A record of academic expertise in relevant and contemporary theories, practices, techniques and tools related to assessment. Relevant professional experience with contemporary approaches to approaching assessment in schools is required. Recent experience with current digital tools for assessment and reporting is required. Recent experience as a school-based educator is preferred. Recent experience designing, teaching, and assessing a teacher education course at a university level is preferred. Successful recent experience working independently and as part of a team is essential. The B.Ed. is a provincially accredited program. Applicants will therefore be expected to teach to the accreditation standards for this course.

Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

Applicants should include an up-to-date curriculum vitae, cover letter and evidence of recent successful teaching in schools or universities or other informal educational contexts (e.g., student evaluations); evidence of teaching or professional learning or research related to course content (e.g., course outlines, teaching materials, professional learning events, research outputs, etc.).
