Course Title: EDUC 4333 SU04 – Equity and Inclusive Schooling

Contract Term: May 16, 2024 – July 12, 2024 (Summer Intersession 2024)

Course Schedule: Monday to Friday – 1:00 pm -4:30 pm – Class Dates: May 30, 31; Jun 6, 7, 13, 14, 20, 21, 27, 28

Employee Group: Acadia University Faculty Association

Course Description: This course examines the foundations of social justice and equity and their relationship to the principles of inclusive schooling. Pre-service teachers will consider the systemic barriers that shape public education within a Canadian human rights framework and explore the first voice-lived experience of minoritized communities. This course section is combined elementary and secondary pre-service teachers.

Qualifications:

The successful applicant should have an M.Ed. or higher in a relevant area. A record of academic expertise in relevant and contemporary theories related to Equity and Inclusive Schooling. Current and relevant professional experience with contemporary approaches to approaching Equity and Inclusive Schooling in schools is required. Recent experience as a school-based educator is preferred. Recent experience designing, teaching, and assessing a teacher education course at a university level is preferred. Successful recent experience working independently and as part of a team is essential. The B.Ed. is a provincially accredited program. Applicants will therefore be expected to teach to the accreditation standards and in cooperation with a faculty lead who has expertise in the area.

Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

Applicants should include an up-to-date curriculum vitae, cover letter and evidence of recent successful teaching in schools or universities or other informal educational contexts (e.g., student evaluations); evidence of teaching or professional learning or research related to course content (e.g., course outlines, teaching materials, professional learning events, research outputs, etc.).

Competition closes April 4, 2024 (at midnight)

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals; however, Canadians and permanent residents shall be given priority. First consideration shall be given to internal candidates as defined in Articles 58.11 (b)(i) of the Collective Agreement. The University encourages applications from Indigenous people; African Canadians; African Nova Scotians; persons with disabilities; visible minorities; women; persons of any minority sexuality, gender identity or gender expression; and all intersections of these identities. Acadia embraces the principles of equity, diversity, and inclusion as fundamental in creating an expansive academic environment and champions diverse knowledge systems as pillars of academic excellence.

All applicants shall be required to submit an online self-identification form (Employment Equity Voluntary Self-Identification Form) (Article 3.61(i)). These forms shall be processed by Human Resources. Information provided on these forms shall be held in confidence and may only be used for employment equity purposes as agreed in Article 43.35(b) and 43.35(d)(ii). Self-identification data collected for a given employment competition shall be destroyed after all requirements to preserve documentation for that competition have expired. Only candidates who have submitted a self-identification form can be considered as members of designated groups as described in Article 3.20. The form shall include the option to not self-identify, but candidates must submit the form with their applications.
