Competition: # EDUC 29-77-24

Course Title: EDUC 4503 SU03 – Digital Literacy and Curriculum (Secondary)

Contract Term: July 8, 2024 – August 16, 2024 (Summer Intersession 2024)

Course Schedule: Monday to Friday – 8:30 am – 12 noon – Class Dates: July 22 – August 2

Employee Group: Acadia University Faculty Association

Course Description: This course explores critical digital literacies for the empowerment of effective teaching and learning practices within diverse classroom contexts. The complexity of technology integration will be examined from the perspective of overlaps with pedagogical and content knowledge in the context of teacher as reflective practitioner. Through the use of current digital tools and classroom strategies, students will explore concepts such as Blended Learning, Digital Citizenship, new literacies, Universal Design for Learning, and design thinking in STEAM environments. This course section is intended for Secondary education students.

Qualifications:

The successful applicant should have an M.Ed. or higher in a relevant area. A record of academic expertise in relevant theories related to digital literacies and learning technologies. Current professional experience with contemporary approaches to teaching and leading digital literacy and learning technologies in schools and regional centers for education is required. Relevant experience with the pedagogies and technologies of Collaborative Maker Spaces is preferred. Recent experience as a school-based educator is preferred. Recent experience designing, teaching, and assessing a teacher education course at a university level is preferred. Successful recent experience working independently and as part of a team is essential. The B.Ed. is a provincially accredited program. Applicants will therefore be expected to teach to the accreditation standards for this course.

Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

Applicants should include an up-to-date curriculum vitae, cover letter and evidence of recent successful teaching in schools or universities or other informal educational contexts (e.g., student evaluations); evidence of teaching or professional learning or research related to course content (e.g., course outlines, teaching materials, professional learning events, research outputs, etc.).

To apply for this opportunity, click on the “Apply Now” button and upload a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and proof of degree/diploma.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals; however, Canadians and permanent residents shall be given priority. First consideration shall be given to internal candidates as defined in Articles 58.11 (b)(i) of the Collective Agreement. The University encourages applications from Indigenous people; African Canadians; African Nova Scotians; persons with disabilities; visible minorities; women; persons of any minority sexuality, gender identity or gender expression; and all intersections of these identities. Acadia embraces the principles of equity, diversity, and inclusion as fundamental in creating an expansive academic environment and champions diverse knowledge systems as pillars of academic excellence.

All applicants shall be required to submit an online self-identification form (Employment Equity Voluntary Self-Identification Form) (Article 3.61(i)). These forms shall be processed by Human Resources. Information provided on these forms shall be held in confidence and may only be used for employment equity purposes as agreed in Article 43.35(b) and 43.35(d)(ii). Self-identification data collected for a given employment competition shall be destroyed after all requirements to preserve documentation for that competition have expired. Only candidates who have submitted a self-identification form can be considered as members of designated groups as described in Article 3.20. The form shall include the option to not self-identify, but candidates must submit the form with their applications.
