

ACADIA UNIVERSITY

Located in Wolfville, Nova Scotia, Acadia University is recognized as an outstanding academic institution. Founded in 1838, it is one of Canada's oldest and most respected universities and offers a liberal arts education unique among post-secondary institutions. Acadia offers a stimulating, vibrant environment, on and off campus, where dedicated faculty inspire and challenge students to be their best through supportive personalized learning environments, holistic education and nurturing community engagement.

Faculty of Professional Studies School of Education Per Course Faculty Teaching Opportunity

Under the terms of the 16th Collective Agreement, and in accordance with Article 58.10(a)(ii), the University invites applications from all qualified individuals. First consideration will be given to internal candidates as defined in Article 58.11(b)(i) of the Collective Agreement (Internal applicants are all individuals on the Precedence List as defined in Articles 11.12(a), 11.12 (b) and 11.12(m) and all Full-Time Employees.).

Competition: # EDUC 34-92-24

Course Title: Topics in Education: Environmental Education (EDUC 5053 FA02)

Contract Term: August 15, 2024 – December 31, 2024

Course Schedule: Fall 2024 – TBA - Acadia Campus

Employee Group: Acadia University Faculty Association

Course Description: This course will be for graduate students enrolled in the Master of Education in Curriculum Studies: Outdoor Learning Across the Curriculum cohort.

This topics course is designed to equip graduate students with the knowledge, skills, and competencies necessary to become leaders in the field of environmental education. Through a combination of theoretical foundations, practical applications, and hands-on experiences, students will develop a deep understanding of environmental issues and learn effective strategies for engaging diverse audiences in environmental learning and action.

Qualifications:

The successful applicant must possess, at minimum, a Master's degree in Education or a relevant field. Preference will be given to applicants with a PHD in a relevant area. Preference will be given to applicants with graduate work in the areas of education, environmental education, environmental sustainability, and/or outdoor learning. Applicants should have demonstrated experience developing and delivering environmental education curriculum in outdoor setting in a range of contexts (every day local, community, wilderness, etc.) and to a diversity of learners (pre-primary to post-secondary). Preference will be given to applicants who have research activity related to environmental education and/or curriculum. Preference will be given to applicants who demonstrate knowledge of and experience with provincial/federal strategies around environmental education.

Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

To apply for this opportunity, click on the "Apply Now" button and upload a letter of application, a curriculum vitae, and copy of terminal degree/diploma, evidence of recent successful teaching in schools or universities or other informal educational contexts (e.g., student evaluations), evidence of teaching or professional learning or research related to course content (e.g., course outlines, teaching materials, professional learning events, research outputs, etc.).

If further information is required, please contact Cathy MacDonald, Provost and Vice-President Academic Office at cathy.d.macdonald@acadiau.ca.

Competition closes April 18, 2024 (at midnight)

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals; however, Canadians and permanent residents shall be given priority. First consideration shall be given to internal candidates as defined in Articles 58.11 (b)(i) of the Collective Agreement. The University encourages applications from Indigenous people; African Canadians; African Nova Scotians; persons with disabilities; visible minorities; women; persons of any minority sexuality, gender identity or gender expression; and all intersections of these identities. Acadia embraces the principles of equity, diversity, and inclusion as fundamental in creating an expansive academic environment and champions diverse knowledge systems as pillars of academic excellence.

All applicants shall be required to submit an online self-identification form (Employment Equity Voluntary Self-Identification Form) (Article 3.61(i)). These forms shall be processed by Human Resources. Information provided on these forms shall be held in confidence and may only be used for employment equity purposes as agreed in Article 43.35(b) and 43.35(d)(ii). Self-identification data collected for a given employment competition shall be destroyed after all requirements to preserve documentation for that competition have expired. Only candidates who have submitted a self-identification form can be considered as members of designated groups as described in Article 3.20. The form shall include the option to not self-identify, but candidates must submit the form with their applications.