Competition: # MUSI 02-102-24

Course Title: Music & Society (MUSI 1253 WI01)

Contract Term: December 15, 2024 – April 30, 2025

Course Schedule: Winter Term: Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays – 10:30 am – 11:20 am

Employee Group: Acadia University Faculty Association

Course Description: An introduction to the historical and socio-cultural context for the study of music. This course will examine a wide range of repertoires and historical periods in developing critical thinking, listening, and analysis skills for the study of music history and culture.

Qualifications:

The successful applicant must possess life experience in knowledge systems not defined by Western culture in the discipline of music. The School of Music is looking for and open to someone who will challenge our School of Music faculty and students. The School of Music is actively working to decolonize our understanding of the academic community and our understanding of music. The ideal candidate will be a person who identifies as Black, Indigenous, or a Person of Color. Although a course description exists, the course itself will be created by the successful candidate.

Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

To apply for this opportunity, click on the “Apply Now” button and upload a letter of application and a curriculum vitae.

Competition closes May 1, 2024 (at midnight)

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals; however, Canadians and permanent residents shall be given priority. First consideration shall be given to internal candidates as defined in Articles 58.11 (b)(i) of the Collective Agreement. The University encourages applications from Indigenous people; African Canadians; African Nova Scotians; persons with disabilities; visible minorities; women; persons of any minority sexuality, gender identity or gender expression; and all intersections of these identities. Acadia embraces the principles of equity, diversity, and inclusion as fundamental in creating an expansive academic environment and champions diverse knowledge systems as pillars of academic excellence.

All applicants shall be required to submit an online self-identification form (Employment Equity Voluntary Self-Identification Form) (Article 3.61(i)). These forms shall be processed by Human Resources. Information provided on these forms shall be held in confidence and may only be used for employment equity purposes as agreed in Article 43.35(b) and 43.35(d)(ii). Self-identification data collected for a given employment competition shall be destroyed after all requirements to preserve documentation for that competition have expired. Only candidates who have submitted a self-identification form can be considered as members of designated groups as described in Article 3.20. The form shall include the option to not self-identify, but candidates must submit the form with their applications.
