Competition: #EDUC 61-272-25
Course Title: Special Topics: Teaching Business in Secondary School 2 (EDUC 42F3 WI02)
Contract Term: December 15, 2025 – April 30, 2026
Class Schedule: Winter 2026: Day & Time are TBD
Employee Group: Acadia University Faculty Association

Course Description: This course builds methods for teaching secondary business introduced in EDUC 42F3 FA01. Drawing on relevant documents and current research, pre-service teachers engage in discovery activities examining how secondary students think about, and build knowledge and skills in, business. The overall objective is to learn how to help secondary students to grow in their ability to teach business by considering relevant pedagogies, practices, and assessment strategies.

Qualifications: M.Ed. or higher qualification in a relevant area. A record of academic expertise in relevant and contemporary theories related to teaching secondary business. Current and relevant professional experience with contemporary approaches to teaching secondary business education is required. Recent experience as a school-based educator is preferred. Recent experience designing, delivering, and assessing a teacher education course at a university level is preferred. Successful recent experience working independently and as part of a team is essential. Note: the B.Ed. is a provincially accredited program. Applicants will therefore be expected to teach and collaborate within the contexts of accreditation requirements.

Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

To apply for this opportunity, click on the “Apply Now” button and upload a letter of application, a curriculum vitae, and the following:

1. Evidence of recent successful teaching in schools or universities or other informal educational contexts (e.g., student evaluations).
2. Evidence of teaching or professional learning or research related to course content (e.g., course outlines, teaching materials, professional learning events, research outputs, etc.).

Competition closes October 14, 2025 (at midnight)

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals; however, Canadians and permanent residents shall be given priority. First consideration shall be given to internal candidates as defined in Articles 58.11 (b)(i) of the Collective Agreement. The University encourages applications from Indigenous people; African Canadians; African Nova Scotians; persons with disabilities; visible minorities; women; persons of any minority sexuality, gender identity or gender expression; and all intersections of these identities. Acadia embraces the principles of equity, diversity, and inclusion as fundamental in creating an expansive academic environment and champions diverse knowledge systems as pillars of academic excellence.

All applicants shall be required to submit an online self-identification form (Employment Equity Voluntary Self-Identification Form) (Article 3.61(i)). These forms shall be processed by Human Resources. Information provided on these forms shall be held in confidence and may only be used for employment equity purposes as agreed in Article 43.35(b) and 43.35(d)(ii). Self-identification data collected for a given employment competition shall be destroyed after all requirements to preserve documentation for that competition have expired. Only candidates who have submitted a self-identification form can be considered as members of designated groups as described in Article 3.20. The form shall include the option to not self-identify, but candidates must submit the form with their applications.
