Course Schedule: Winter Term: Tuesdays 8:30am – 11:50am
Course Format: In person at Acadia University
Employee Group: Acadia University Faculty Association
Stipend Amount: The current Per Course stipend for this appointment is specified in Appendices H and I of the 17th Collective Agreement.

Course Description: Fundamental issues in elementary mathematics education include the nature of mathematics and our purposes in teaching mathematics. Drawing on relevant documents and current research, this course provides pre-service teachers with opportunities to investigate and use instructional and assessment materials for elementary school mathematics. Prerequisite(s): EDUC 4173 with a minimum grade of B- or permission of the instructor.

Qualifications: M.Ed. or higher in an area relevant to the advertised course. A record of academic expertise in relevant theories related to the creation of a positive and successful professional teacher identity is required. Recent experience as an educational leader at a Regional Office or as a school-based administrator is required. Relevant knowledge and experience of educational leadership in areas of policy, ethics, unions, hiring processes, school-community partnerships, teaching standards, career planning, and curriculum development is required. Recent experience designing, facilitating, and assessing a teacher education course at a university level is preferred. Successful recent experience working independently and as part of a team is essential. The B.Ed. is a provincially accredited program. Applicants will therefore be expected to teach to the accreditation standards for this course.

Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

To apply for this opportunity, click on the "Apply Now" button and upload a letter of application and curriculum vitae. Also include:

1. Evidence of recent successful teaching in schools or universities or other informal educational contexts (e.g., student evaluations)
2. Evidence of teaching or professional learning or research related to course content (e.g., course outlines, teaching materials, professional learning events, research outputs, etc.).

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals; however, candidates eligible to work in Canada shall be given priority. First consideration shall be given to internal candidates as defined in Articles 58.11 (b)(i) of the Collective Agreement. The University encourages applications from Mi'kmaq and other Indigenous Peoples; African Nova Scotians; African Canadians; persons with disabilities; racialized groups; women; persons of any minority sexuality, minority gender identity, or minority gender expression; and all intersections of these identities; and such other groups as may be specified by federal or provincial employment equity legislation. Acadia University embraces the principles of equity, diversity, and inclusion as fundamental in creating an expansive academic environment and champions diverse knowledge systems as pillars of academic excellence.

Applicants for positions at Acadia University shall be required to complete and submit the confidential Employment Equity Self-Identification Form (Employment Equity Self-Identification Form) (Article 3.61(i)). These forms shall be processed by Human Resources. Information provided on these forms shall be held in confidence and may only be used for employment equity purposes as agreed in Article 43.35(b) and 43.35(d)(ii). Self-identification data collected for a given employment competition shall be destroyed after all requirements to preserve documentation for that competition have expired. Only candidates who have submitted a self-identification form can be considered as members of designated groups as described in Article 3.20. The form shall include the option to not self-identify, but candidates must submit the form with their applications.
